

CREATING GREEN CLASSROOMS

Find out how you can incorporate positive 'green' practices into your teaching.

COURSE OUTLINE

Teachers play a key role in communicating a progressive 'green' message to younger generations. Creating Green Classrooms is designed to show how teachers can bring lessons about sustainability and positive climate action into their everyday teaching.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Overall objectives of the mobility

- Analyse ways of integrating 'climate-positive' practices into the secondary school classroom.
- Explore practical ways to make your classroom an eco-friendly space.
- Learn strategies for exploring green topics with your students – creative projects and activities.
- Evaluate materials/resources that can be used to develop green approaches in the classroom.
- Workshop ideas for creative lesson plans.

Added value of the mobility

This course allows participants to develop their English language skills while sharing innovative teaching ideas with fellow teachers.

Activities to be carried out

Completion of tasks to stimulate analysis of music-based teaching methods.
Workshop sessions in which participants reflect on how they can integrate green activities into their teaching and share ideas with fellow participants.
Opportunities to enhance English language skills through content-based lessons
Participants are directed towards online resources to help incorporate green content into classroom practice.
Cultural and heritage trips as part of a chaperoned group.

Expected outcomes and impact

This course offers a professional development opportunity designed to show teachers how they can integrate a positive green message into their teaching practice.

CULTURAL PROGRAMME

The courses are delivered in Atlantic Centre of Education in Galway on Ireland's 'Wild Atlantic' Coast, and participants will have ample opportunity to learn about the cultural heritage of both Ireland and the local area. The week-long programme includes a full-day cultural tour to a local area of scenic and heritage value, a guided historical walking tour of Galway city, and afternoon social and cultural activities. Our staff are happy to suggest other tours and events to enjoy during your stay in Galway.
